Information on Addressing the CPOST Commission Meeting

General Conduct

- Members of the public attending CPOST Commission meetings shall observe the rules of conduct.
- Stamping of feet, whistles, shouting, physically threatening conduct and/or similar demonstrations are prohibited.

Addressing the Commission

- The Commission provides the opportunity for the public to address the Commission regarding matters not on the agenda, within the subject matter jurisdiction of the Commission. All matters not on the agenda will be heard, but per the California Government Code, cannot be voted on; these matters will be placed on the agenda of the next regular meeting.
- Public comments should be addressed to the Commission as a whole, not to individual Commissioners.
- Personal, verbal attacks on individual members will not be permitted.

Time Limits

- Each speaker shall limit his/her remarks to the specified subject and the time allotted. The amount of time allotted will be dependent upon how many requests to speak before the Commission are requested.
- The Chairperson of the Commission will designate a time keeper.
