

EXPANDABLE BATON STANDARD PA002

AUTHORITY

California Penal Code 13601(a)(1): The CPOST shall develop, approve, and monitor standards for the selection and training of state correctional peace officer apprentices.

BACKGROUND

Parole Agents (PAs) are authorized to carry expandable batons (EB) while on duty and when necessary, to subdue an attacker, overcome resistance, effect custody, or gain compliance with a lawful order. Only weapons that have been approved by the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) will be issued or assigned per California Code of Regulations Title 15, Section 3275(a).

STANDARD

PAs shall have the knowledge, ability and basic skill in the proper care, storage, use, and retention of the EB in order to maintain the safety and security of all persons.

COMPONENTS OF STANDARD

1. Expandable Baton – The PA shall be knowledgeable and proficient in the ability to perform all of the instructed movements related to the EB.
2. Problem Solving/Decision-Making – The PA shall be knowledgeable and proficient in analyzing situations and determining whether it is appropriate to deploy and use the EB and relevant techniques.
3. Peace Officer Safety – The PA shall demonstrate situational and tactical awareness and the ability to respond appropriately to ensure agent safety as well as safety of all persons.
4. Communication – The PA shall use effective verbal and non-verbal skills when deploying the EB. The PA shall document and report any use of force. PAs shall also be adequately trained in how to document incidents where the PA used the EB while on duty.
5. Ethics – The PA shall abide by the code of ethics and accepted principles of conduct that govern decisions and actions based on professional values and expectations.

6. Stress Tolerance and Emotional Regulation – The PA shall maintain self-control and make timely, reasonable decisions in the use of the EB.
7. The measurement of knowledge and proficiency in the above mentioned, components shall be delivered in pass/fail format.
